

Thank you for visiting The Harbour's website. Here are additional links that may be helpful to you. Thank you for your interest in our community's children and youth.

Chicago Coalition for the Homeless: A Website for People Concerned with Homelessness in Chicago
<http://www.chicagohomeless.org/>

Kids Count: A national database containing data by stats on indicators of the well-being of children
<http://www.aecf.org/MajorInitiatives/KIDSCOUNT.aspx>

National Alliance to End Homelessness Youth Page: The National Alliance to End Homelessness is a nonpartisan, mission-driven organization committed to preventing and ending homelessness in the United States.
<http://www.endhomelessness.org/section/policy/focusareas/youth>

National Coalition for the Homeless: Meeting the immediate needs of individuals currently experiencing homeless and those who are at risk of doing so.
<http://www.nationalhomeless.org/>

OMNI Youth Services: Offers support, guidance and intervention to youth at risk for family crises and destructive personal choices, such as substance abuse and violent behavior.
<http://www.omniyouth.org/>

The Bridge Youth and Family Services: Assisting youth and their families in developing and sustaining behavioral and emotional health through community-based services.
<http://www.bridgeyouth.org/>

The Chapin Hall Center for Children at the University of Chicago: Conducts research on the well-being of Illinois children and adolescents.
<http://www.chapinhall.org/>

The National Runaway Switchboard: Keeping America's runaway and at-risk youth safe and off the streets.
<http://www.1800runaway.org/>

Y.O.U. – Evanston Youth Service Agency: Social service agency that provides guidance, support and advocacy for Evanston youth.
<http://www.youevanston.org/>